The Clerk opened the meeting.

Those present elected Cllr Young as the chairman and Cllr Fisher as ice-chairman of the Strategic Working group.

Items Discussed were:

1. Purpose of the group and Terms of Reference.

Draft Terms of Reference were considered. It was agreed that the task group convene when ever there was felt to be a need to evaluate and discuss an issue to prepare for the item to be considered at a Council Meeting.

It was agreed that the Clerk should always be present to ensure that the Group minute everything and that any Council agenda items arising, or recommended decisions are correctly documented and to ensure all correct procedures are complied with.

The need for complete transparency was stressed by the Clerk.

Action: The Clerk to prepare draft Terms of Reference to present to the Council for consideration and approval.

2. Standing Orders

The Clerk presented the draft Standing Orders based on the recently issued NALC model.

Each section was considered in turn allowing Councillors present to question the needs and to consider suitable parameters for the variables highlighted by the Clerk.

Action: The Clerk to prepare a revised draft of the Standing Orders to present to the Council for consideration and approval.

CHURCH LAWTON PARISH COUNCIL

Strategy Task Group Terms of Reference

1. Overview

The purpose of the task group is to consider the strategy and policies of the Parish Council. The group will report to the Full Council.

The council formed the group to allow an increased time to the review of some issues and policies than is achievable at a Council Meeting.

The group cannot make any decision on behalf of the Council.

2. Governance Rules

- a) The Task Group has been created by decision of the Council with a specific purpose to consider strategy and policy and provide reports and recommendations for determination by Council which will assist in speeding up the process of carrying out the Council's business.
- b) The Task Group should elect a chair and vice-chair to remain in position until the next Annual Meeting of the Council.
- c) All members of the Council are to be members of and invited to task group meetings.
- d) The task group may involve participants from other bodies or the public as required upon resolution of the Council.
- e) The Clerk is to attend all meetings of the task group.
- f) The task group is not a statutory body and has no powers to take decisions on behalf of the Council or any committees which may be formed.
- g) Items of discussion at a Task Group meeting must be reported to the Council at its next meeting, must enter the public domain and must be available on the website.
- h) Task Groups, being working parties, can meet at any relevant location and are not open to public scrutiny.
- i) Any contact with person or persons outside the Council, its Committees or Task Groups must be notified to the Clerk within five (5) days of the contact being made whether initiated by the members of the Task Group or by the outside body. All e-mails should be copied to the Clerk at clparishclerk@gmail.com
- j) Any written correspondence to be carried out by the Task Group should be produced by the Clerk.
- k) It should be noted that a Parish Council cannot delegate powers to a member or members (as opposed to a duly appointed committee); it can delegate powers to the Clerk.

3. Strategy Task Group Purpose

The purpose of the Strategy Task Group is to:

- a) Consider the forward strategy and future plans of the Council.
- b) To review and consider policies with the Clerk.
- c) To consider any item from a Council meeting where it has been actioned that the strategy task group should consider the data and report back to Council.

4. Resources and membership of the Task Group

- a) A quorate of 4 will be expected to attend and support each task group meeting. All members will be invited to attend.
- b) The Clerk will be a member of the Task Group.
- c) Non-Parish Councillors will be invited to join this task group as and when required either on a permanent or temporary basis.
- d) A chairman and vice-chairman of the Task Group must be appointed upon formation and in normal circumstances will be Parish Councillors.
- e) The Clerk of the Parish Council will be responsible (with the elected chairman of the Task Group) for agreeing and issuing the agenda for each meeting and also to prepare minutes.

5. Meeting Frequency and Location

- a) The Task Group will normally meet only as required. Any sub-groups commissioned to provide research and development on the agreed tasks will meet as agreed by the members of the sub-group.
 - b) Task group meetings can be convened by the Chairman of the Council, by the Clerk or by the Council at a meeting if it is felt necessary to further follow up and evaluate information on an item before resolving an issue.
 - c) Task Group meetings and sub-group meetings can take place at any location agreed by the members attending.
 - d) All meetings will have an agenda and minutes which will be circulated to the Council.
 - e) All documentation must be filed with the Clerk of the Parish Council.

INTRODUCTION

These standing orders are based on the model standing orders update by the National Association of Local Council (NALC) model standing orders contained in "Local Councils Explained" by Meera Tharmarajah (© 2013 NALC). This publication contains new model standing orders which reference new legislation introduced after 2013 when the last model standing orders were published.

NOTES

Model standing orders that are in bold type contain legal and statutory requirements and it is recommended that councils adopt them without changing them or their meaning.

1. RULES OF DEBATE AT MEETINGS

- a Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.
- b A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.
- d If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion (as amended) becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting.
- h A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- i If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- j Subject to standing order 1(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- k One or more amendments may be discussed together if the chairman of the meeting considers this expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
- l A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.

Appendix 4

- m The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on it.
- n Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate on the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately before it is put to the vote.
- o Unless permitted by the chairman of the meeting, a councillor may speak once in the debate on a motion except:
 - i. to speak on an amendment moved by another councillor;
 - ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the motion has been amended since he last spoke;
 - iii. to make a point of order;
 - iv. to give a personal explanation; or
 - v. to exercise a right of reply.
- p During the debate on a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting he is concerned by.
- q A point of order shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and his decision shall be final.
- r When a motion is under debate, no other motion shall be moved except:
 - i. to amend the motion;
 - ii. to proceed to the next business;
 - iii. to adjourn the debate;
 - iv. to put the motion to a vote;
 - v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting;
 - vi. to refer a motion to a committee or sub-committee for consideration;
 - vii. to exclude the public and press;
 - viii. to adjourn the meeting; or
 - ix. to suspend particular standing order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory or legal requirements.
- s Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the chairman of the meeting shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived his right of reply.
- t Excluding motions moved under standing order 1(r), the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed (2) minutes without the consent of the chairman of the meeting.

2. DISORDERLY CONDUCT AT MEETINGS

Appendix 4

- a No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this standing order is ignored, the chairman of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.
- b If person(s) disregard the request of the chairman of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the chairman of the meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or be excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.
- c If a resolution made under standing order 2(b) is ignored, the chairman of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.

3. MEETINGS GENERALLY

| | |
|------------------------|---|
| Full Council meetings | ● |
| Committee meetings | ● |
| Sub-committee meetings | ● |
